JSG Mission Statement

The Guild functions exclusively for the benefit of the Jackson Symphony Orchestra to assist, support and further the presence of music in the community

Volunteer Projects & Committees

Annual Meeting

Committee organizes May annual meeting. Community Music School Children’s Recitals. Volunteers assist at music school recitals.

Concert Greeters

Friendly greeters from the Guild are needed to warmly welcome Jackson Symphony Orchestra concertgoers as they arrive at the Potter Center.

Event Host in Your Home

The JSO sometimes holds a reception for contributors, guest artists and others, or immediately following a concert in the Subscription Series. On these occasions a volunteer host or hostess is needed for the reception.

Fundraising

Explore Guild fundraising opportunities and assist with the Holiday Ball solicitations.

Guest Artist Hospitality

Volunteer hosts or hostesses provide lodging, meals and transportation for guest artists and their families as needed.

History Book

Members maintain an ongoing photo history of the Guild and JSO events.

Holiday Ball

This gala dinner-dance, held on the first Saturday in December, is the Guild’s largest fundraiser. It requires dozens of volunteers to plan the event, mail invitation, contact potential contributors, prepare publicity, obtain silent auction items, set up auction items, put together a program book and decorate for the event.

Not Just Jazz Night

Committee members contact musician's, make arrangements with a venue, prepare publicity and sell tickets to this annual event, which features jazz and other music.

Music & Memory

Volunteers help collect ipods, iphones and Nanos and load them with music to be shared with those dealing with Alzheimer’s disease.
