INSPIRE

— THE 2025-2026 SEASON —

THANK YOU

TO OUR SERIES SPONSORS

SPECIAL THANKS TO

WELCOME

TO THE JSO'S 2025/2026 SEASON

The Jackson Symphony Orchestra is thrilled to present our 76th Concert Season! There is no denying the power of live music—the exchange of energy between the audience and performers enriches both and enhances our lives. We have been hard at work planning this season, and you can expect performances by highly regarded musicians.

This year's Classical Concert Series theme is “INSPIRE.” I've curated a program featuring dynamic music from well-known composers such as Holst, Tchaikovsky, Beethoven, Bernstein, Brahms, and Mozart; lesser-known composers like Fernande Decruck and Paule Maurice; and contemporary works by living composers including John Williams and Jessie Montgomery.

Each Classical Concert this season has its own distinct character:

- Star Wars and The Planets – Radiant and celestial
- Romeo and Juliet – Dramatic and passionate
- 5,4,3, Beethoven! – Iconic and Resilient
- Branford Marsalis Plays John Williams – Charming and lively
- Mozart's Requiem – Emotional and powerful

You can also look forward to inspiring guest artists, including the legendary

Branford Marsalis on saxophone, soprano

Kathryn Mueller, pianist

Evren Ozel, and Gilmore Young Artist

Winner Janice Carissa on piano.

Our Music on Tap Series celebrates its 12th season with six exciting concerts, bringing top-tier talent to Jackson. This season features performances spanning Salsa, Folk, Bluegrass-ish, Jazz, a Celtic Festival, and Gospel.

Our Summer Pops Concert remains a beloved free event at Blackman Park. In addition, don't miss the popular Concert Aglow performances. Finally, we are excited to bring back The Nutcracker, a cherished holiday tradition in our community. Music is meant to be shared, and we hope to INSPIRE you this season. Thank you for your support and patronage!

Embark on a celestial journey as the JSO explores music inspired by the stars and beyond. Jessie Montgomery's Starburst opens the program with its radiant energy, followed by Fernande Decruck's evocative Hymne à Apollon, a nod to ancient mythology. The concert continues with selections from John Williams' iconic Star Wars Suite, transporting you to galaxies far, far away. After intermission, Gustav Holst's The Planets takes center stage, offering a breathtaking symphonic portrayal of the cosmos, enhanced by stunning visual projections from designer Camilla Tassi.

NOVEMBER 22 BLUEGRASS-ISH WILSON THICKET

All Concerts:
Doors Open at 7PM
Show starts at 8PM

8 PM | WEATHERWAX HALL

$20 ADVANCE | $25 AT DOOR

Experience a masterful acoustic performance featuring rich three-part harmonies and a dynamic blend of guitar, fiddle, mandolin, and banjo.

Wilson Thicket draws inspiration from the essence of Appalachian string bands but pushes beyond traditional bluegrass. This ensemble brings together some of Michigan's most talented singers, instrumentalists, and songwriters, all with decades of experience. For fans of: Doc Watson, The Avett Brothers, and Old Crow Medicine Show.

MARCH 6&7 CELTIC FESTIVAL THE TANNAHILL WEAVERS

8 PM | WEATHERWAX HALL

$25 IN ADVANCE | $30 AT DOOR

The Tannahill Weavers bring the energy and tradition of Celtic music to life with powerful vocals, bagpipes, fiddle, and guitar. Blending lively dance tunes with heartfelt ballads, this legendary band has been a driving force in the Celtic scene since 1968. With members featured in the hit series Outlander and praised by The New York Times for their "eloquent mixture of the old and the new," they continue to captivate audiences worldwide.

JANUARY 31 WORLD JAZZ NIGHT DAVE SHARP WORLD QUARTET

8 PM | WEATHERWAX HALL

$20 ADVANCE | $25 AT DOOR

Featured in the JazzTimes 2010 Critic's Poll, the Dave Sharp Worlds Quartet seamlessly weaves together rhythms, sounds, and textures from around the globe with original compositions inspired by world music. With a unique instrumentation that includes oud, violin, electric bass, synthesizer, and world percussion, the Worlds Quartet is driven by the dynamic interplay of jazz, global traditions, and bold improvisation. Led by bassist, composer, and bandleader Dave Sharp, the group draws on musical influences from Turkey, Egypt, Ukraine, India, Bulgaria, and Greece, delivering a rich and vibrant tapestry of sound. For fans of: global fusion, jazz improvisation, and cultural exploration.

APRIL 11 GOSPEL NIGHT NIKKI D & THE SISTERS OF THUNDER

8 PM | WEATHERWAX HALL

$20 ADVANCE | $25 AT DOOR

Nikki D & The Sisters of Thunder is a family-based ensemble from Toledo, Ohio, blending gospel with blues riffs and grooves in a way that is uniquely their own. The band's sound is defined by Nikki D's electrifying steel guitar, which is often described as wildly soulful. In 2016, Guitar World magazine recognized Nikki as "The Jimi Hendrix of Sacred Steel" for her experimental, vocal-like riffs and otherworldly tones. Alongside her guitar prowess, Nikki's raspy, sultry voice commands attention, harmonizing with the other band members' voices adding depth and soul to every performance. For fans of: Sister Rosetta Thorpe, Robert Randolph & the Family Band, and Sharon Jones & The Dap-Kings.
